COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,
COUNTY OF ACCOMACK-to-wit:

This day, Virginia State Trooper R.S. Morris appeared before Magistrate Betty S. Wood for the County of Accomack, Virginia, and after first being duly sworn, stated that:

Your affiant is a Trooper with the Virginia State Police and investigated several complaints involving William Donald Marshall, born 11/23/39, where specifically (1) on or about 9/11/99, William Donald Marshall obtained from Jaxons Hardware Store, in Parksley, Accomack County, Virginia material valued at two hundred dollars or more, upon representations that he had been granted credit by permission of the store owner, this being untrue, and furthermore, (2) on or about 10/02/99, William Donald Marshall once again returned to Jaxons Hardware Store, Parksley, Accomack County, Virginia, and obtained materials valued at two hundred dollars upon the same representation, that said credit had been granted to him when it had, in fact, not been granted to him, and furthermore, (3) on or about 10/30/99, William Donald Marshall did obtain property valued at two hundred dollars or more, from the Radio Shack in Onley, Accomack County, Virginia, upon the representation that authorized purchase orders were issued by the defendant's company, when in fact there was no company authorizing this defendant to make any purchases nor orders.

That on February 8, 2000, Betty S. Wood, Accomack County Magistrate found probable cause and issued three (3) felony warrants against the defendant for obtaining by false pretense or token property taken from Jaxons Hardware Store and from Radio Shack as set forth above, all in the County of Accomack, Virginia, and all such offenses are defined and punishment therefore prescribed by Sections 18.2-178, of the Code of Virginia (1950) as amended.
